The Courier-Journal.

VOLUME XXXIX. LOUISVILLE, TUESDAY, MAY 4, 1869. NEW SERIES—NUMBER 264.

WASHINGTON.

No Chance for a Row With Spain.

INDIANAPOLIS.

Proceedings of the Legislature—A Bill Prevent Virginian Committees—Sabbath Bill—School Commissioner—Medical College—Libel Suits, &c.

[Special Dispatch to the Courier-Journal.]

INDIANAPOLIS, May 3.—In the Senate, a call was dispensed, but for thirteen members the absence of a quorum. It was withdrawn. Four new bills were introduced, making for all, a bill was introduced to incorporate the Northwestern Christian University. A bill to legalize bail in Justices of the Peace certified for, after their commissions have expired, was passed. The bill to provide for the relief of the Supreme Court was taken up, passed by a unanimous vote. The bill for the better regulation of quilts on railroads was indefinitely postponed.

In the House large number of bills were ordered engrossed. A bill to amend the act for Mr. Harper (Sen. Stewart), providing that those who are absent two or three weeks at home practicing law or talking out of their house, shall not pay for such absence, was kill on the table.

The bill to amend certain sections in the bankrupt act was discussed at great length, but it was finally ordered to be engrossed.

Ten thousand copies of the road laws were ordered to be printed for prosecuting town and district officers, and copies of the Bible for the use of the Legislature.

The Sabbath School Convention of the old Presbyterian Synod of Indiana meets here to-morrow, and will probably be in session until Thursday.

The aggregate appointment of all the railroads in the State for the last year, amounts to about $600,000.

The May term of the United States District and Circuit courts will commence to-morrow morning.

A district College is being organized in the city with twenty-one students.

The Governor will not reply to General Fremont's letter in the recent recommendation of Mr. Wheeler's appointment, but will, in official authority for stating, do not judge that the Governor is opposed to further connection, by any means, but will have to say what the administration will have to say will be Minister, who will soon leave

Courier-Journal.

TO THE READERS OF THE Courier-Journal.

Bath Tubs, all kinds, at Tramp Sponge, Rip Rope, Lay, and Size Balls.

Blue Lapis and Ultramarine, a complete line from cheap to extra fine.

Bay Leaves and Alum, all styles, just received.

Bay Leaves and Ultramarine, a complete line from cheap to extra fine.

Bolting Cloths and Sieves, all numbers, for sale by the Government Bolting Cloth Manufacturers, Bolting Cloth Manufacturers, Bolting Cloth Manufacturers, Louisville, Ky

WANTED.

FOR RENT.

AUCTION SALES.

AUCTION SALES.

AUCTION SALES.

FOR SALE—COUNTRY.

FOR SALE—CITY.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF HOTEL

U. S. HOTEL,

Louisville, Ky.

SEALED BIDS WILL BE RECEIVED

W. H. HEDIN,

AUCTIONEER,

Children's, Boys', and Youths

CLOTHING.

COAL.

Auction Sale!

MERCHANTS, MECHANICS

AND WORKINGMEN,

NO. 1 DEPOT STORE

Stock and Fixtures

Special Sale

of Woolen Blankets, Linseys, Carpetings and Painters' Tools, Government Blankets and other Goods

Mattrasses, Hoverlets, etc.

ST. E. E. MOORE & CO.

AT AUCTION

TUESDAY MORNING, May 1, at 10 o'clock,

E. E. MOORE & CO., Auctioneers.

AT AUCTION

BY E. E. MOORE & CO.

Stock and Fixtures

NO. 1 DEPOT STORE

AT AUCTION

O'TUESDAY AFTERNOON, May 1, at 2 o'clock,

ST. E. E. MOORE & CO.

Courier-Journal.

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 4, 1865.

THE NEWS.

Gen. Sherman is in New York.

It is stated that an hotel in Philadelphia, Pa., has been burned.

The coal oil mine in Orleans has been pierced to 81 feet.

The pound of Baron Stenchel, the Russian minister, is dangerously ill.

The printers at New Haven are on a strike for higher wages.

At Evansville, Ind., Sunday night, Grace church was burned down.

The receipts of the fifty-six National Banks in New York, on the 20th ult., were $[illegible].

A paper to be call the "Irish West" is projected in Cincinnati, to be devoted to the interests of the Irish element of that city.

A prize fight near Newport, in this State, was stopped at the last Saturday evening by the arrest of all the parties therein.

At a meeting last evening of Irish citizens in Cincinnati, the sentiment of the most leading of the Mayor of that city was warmly indorsed.

The trotting race between the Americus and Lady Lincoln came off yesterday. At New York yesterday, on account of the weather.

C. H. Sylvester, formerly editor of the Jersey City Telegraph, died at Jersey City, on Tuesday last.

Rev. C. L. Hutchins, of St. John's parish in Boston, has resigned a call to assistant in Trinity church.

The failure of a large dry goods house in Boston, with liabilities made, was reported on Tuesday with liabilities made, was reported.

James Blackwell, an leading merchant of Boston, and President of the Boston and Providence Railroad, died on Sunday last.

John S. Hayward, an old and wealthy citizen, died at his residence in Hillsboro, Ill., yesterday morning.

Senator Sprague was wrecked at the Central Depot, Boston, on Monday, by having his horses run away. He escaped a brief speech in recognizing the compliment.

The severest storm that have visited New York for many years, commenced on Sunday, and continued for 48 hours.

Yesterday morning at East Bound Brook, on the Central R. R. of New Jersey, a train ran through a bridge, killing two persons, and wounding a fireman, Mr. Gibbs, of Elizabeth, and severely injuring the Superintendent, who was passenger.

The Alphine Mohawk, arrived at St. Louis on Saturday night with three thousand tons of pig iron, has been sold for [illegible]. Thirty thousand tons of pig iron, which has been lying at Dunleith, Iowa, for some time, with his characteristic generosity, has given time to the rebuilding of the Opera House, which was very beautiful. The Mohawk, with "Sign Painting" at the Well on Saturday, features of the play. About one hundred young men and boys, who have been employed in the Opera House, and who had lost their all in the fire, are now in the employ of the Mohawk.

Gen. Thomas Ewing, Jr., has given a card in the Washington Chronicle, in which he says that he is not a candidate for the Senatorship, and that he will not be a candidate for the Senatorship, and that he will not be a candidate for the Senatorship, and that he will not be